Voting no on levies until I see more tax relief

The South Kitsap School District and South Kitsap Fire and Rescue want more money again. I can't bring myself to say yes to either of these levies. Being on a very moderate monthly income, I will vote "no."

State property taxes and county property taxes are the reason, because they (state leaders) refuse to pass any legislation for tax reform for seniors on fixed incomes.

It's a tough time to be asking people to shell out more money, especially in more taxes.
